MONADE is a set of two wall mirrors.

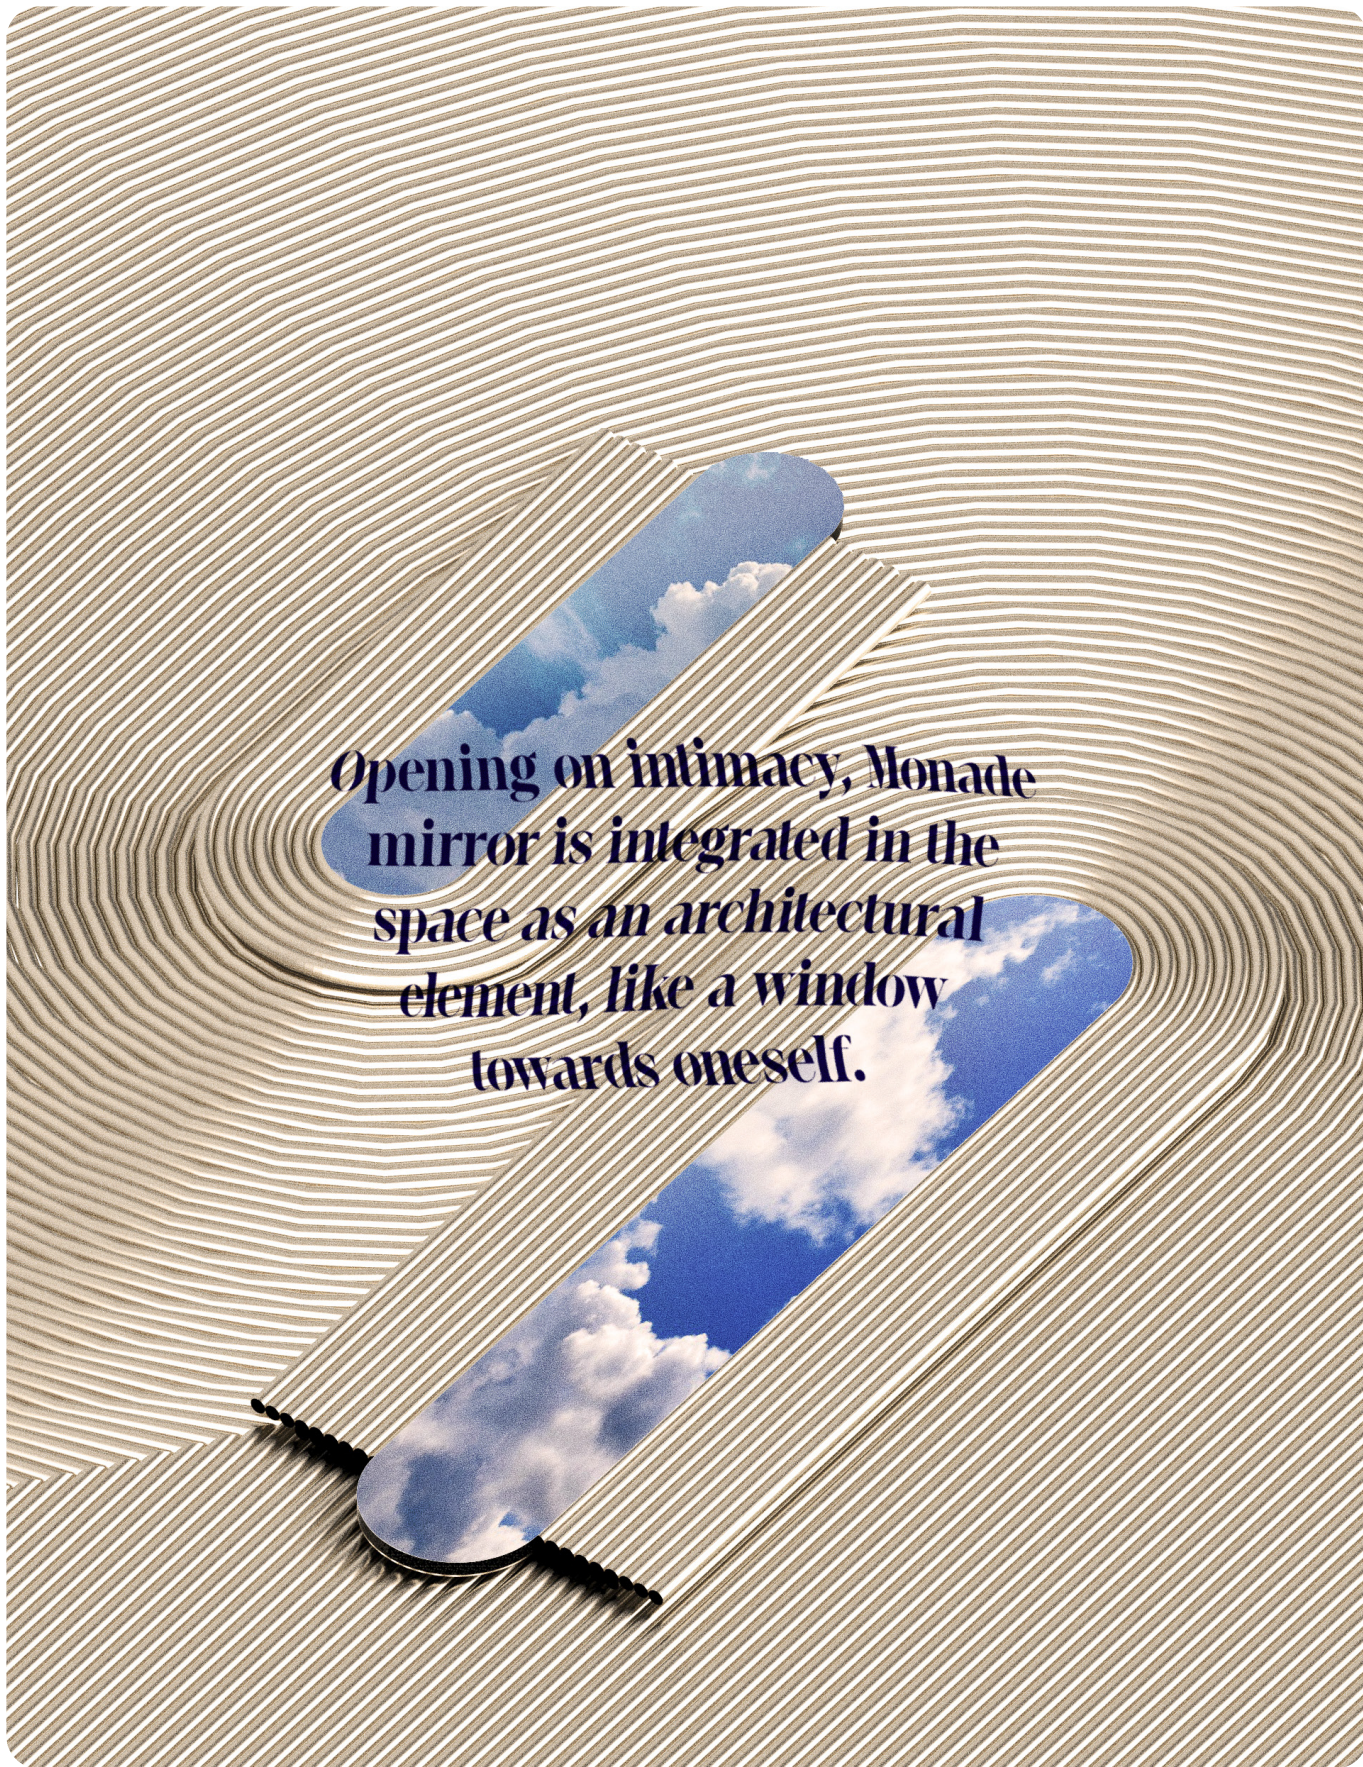

Hypnotizing, the concentric curves of the aluminum tubes catch the eye in a frugal tête-à-tête in the heart of the mirror. Opening on intimacy, MONADE is integrated in the space as an architectural element, like a window towards oneself.

MONADE mirrors are available in several shades, including a tinted mirror. The mirror is fixed to the tubular structure by industrial glue. On the back, a sheet metal plate rigidifies the whole and allows the user to turn the mirror over. Thus, the large version of MONADE can be fixed in two different ways, according to the customer's wishes.

The mirror is fixed to the tubular structure by industrial collage. On the back, a steel sheet rigidifies the whole. Two holes are drilled at the two extremities of the plate. Thus, MONADE can be fixed in two different ways, according to the user's wishes. Two complementary sizes have been designed, the largest one allowing to see oneself entirely inside, and to tip the object into a dimension of space and architecture.

Sensitive to the values of craftsmanship, each mirror has a manual step in its manufacturing process. This gives the product its timeless, sensitive and evocative identity. This passage to life also allows us to offer our customers very sensitive custom-made versions; size, color, finish, tinted mirror, are all creative levers that the studio wished to keep for even more unique projects for our collaborators.
